

QUEEN VICTORIA HOTEL

FACT SHEET

Location

What sets the Queen Victoria Hotel apart from other hotels at the world-renowned V&A Waterfront is undoubtedly its position. Located within a precinct of heritage buildings along Portwood Road – a main artery leading to and from the Waterfront – the Queen Victoria Hotel gives you a sense of being within the Waterfront's vicinity but removed from the frenetic pace of it.

Accommodation

Luxury and sophistication emanate through to the 3 suites and 32 luxury rooms, each one individually designed and curated. With a consistent ambience of glamorous repose, most of the suites have panoramic views of either Table Mountain or Cape Town Harbour, and all of them have a fully stocked private mini bar and Molton Brown pamper accessories. The attention to detail is also something to behold, from the customised wallpaper uniquely designed with a cameo portrait of Queen Victoria and the laser-cut, paper-on-paper artwork of local fynbos to the hotel's very own designer fragrance that wafts through the suites and foyer.

Queen Victoria Hotel has 2 Classic rooms, 13 Deluxe, 17 Premium, 1 Junior Mountain Suite, 1 Executive Suite and 1 Presidential Suite.

Directions

If travelling into the V&A Waterfront from the N1 and N2 highways on Dock Road, pass the Aquarium on your right and follow the road until you reach the traffic circle just after the Ulundi undercover parking garage on the left. Turn left at the traffic circle into Portwood Road and turn first left into the Portwood precinct area (directly after the Everard Read Gallery building). You will see an entrance to undercover parking straight ahead, but do not proceed underground, instead keep left and pass the entrance to the Portwood Hotel. Turn left and enter through a security boom. The Queen Victoria Hotel is situated on your right hand side. You may park in one of the Queen Victoria bays.
