

ROAD DIRECTIONS

DURBAN to MOTSWARI PRIVATE GAME RESERVE

- Follow the N2 north from Durban through Empangeni, Mtubatuba, Pongola and Piet Retief to Ermelo.
- R36 to Carolina
- R33 to eMakahazeni (Belfast)
- R540 through mBombela (Dullstroom) to Mashisheng (Lydenburg)
- R36 to Ohrigstad
- R527 to Marulaneng (Hoedspruit)
- Drive through Marulaneng (Hoedspruit) and turn right at the 4 way stop over the bridge onto the R40.
- After 7km, Turn left into the Timbavati Road. (Your mobile phone is unlikely to have a signal from here!)
- You will be required to stop at the entrance to the Timbavati Private Nature Reserve, where you will pay toll for your vehicle (R140 from 1 Jan 2014). You are now in the Greater Kruger National Park! Motswari is 43km from the gate. (Timbavati Conservation Levy of R170 per person will be collected at Motswari on your departure)
- Although the road is now tarred, drive carefully (50 km/h speed limit) and expect to see wild animals. Stay in your vehicle! 1km after passing Ingwelala on your right (large thatched entrance), look out for the Motswari sign. Turn right and follow the Motswari signs for the remaining 4km.

Arrive early to join the afternoon game drive, departing at 16h00.

The total distance is 1050km and the approximate driving time is 12, 5 hours
